Summit Advantages

Join government decision makers in conversations exploring digital IT modernization during the time of a pandemic.

Become part of the conversation with government thought-leaders on what new technologies they are researching and implementing into their systems to create an ultimately more effective organization.

This includes interactions with agency leaders like:

- CIOs
- CDOs
- CTOs
- CISOs
- and more

Engage with decision makers on how they have modernized their IT space and spread awareness of your company's expertise. Don't miss this opportunity to share information on your solutions and generate new leads within your market.

Your peers and competitors participate at ATARC events for access to senior government thought leaders and decision-makers.

Don't miss advantages your competitors are taking!
