

ATARC Corporate Membership Package @ $9,950

ATARC Annual Memberships offer exclusive privileges, granting direct entry to our sought-after events for optimal positioning and enhanced engagement during summits and webinars. As Members, individuals gain unparalleled access to key Government decision makers and influential thought leaders. Additionally, our program includes distinctive member-only events and program choices, along with VIP-exclusive networking opportunities featuring Government IT Executives within our network. Joining any of our working groups further extends these benefits, providing members with unique collaborative opportunities and deeper involvement in shaping industry advancements *pricing for Carahsoft partners is $8,955

Corporate Membership Package Benefits:

Thought Leadership Benefits:

Working Group Membership

- Branding as Thought Leader in your subject area of expertise
- First-hand insight into Government challenges, policy and framework
- Opportunities to enhance Government and industry network
- Career advancement through professional development
- Access to Federal market intelligence & market research
- Opportunity to steer dialogue and industry direction
- Access to emerging technology labs and product demos

Marketing Benefits

Member Discounts

- Members get a discount off our listed rates for additional events

Corporate Brand Visibility

- Logo and link to corporate website include in membership directory on ATARC website

Newsletter Placement

- Twice yearly highlight of Member Company in the ATARC Newsletter
- Recognition of company accomplishment in highlight
- Highlight on social media accounts during Newsletter Placement

About ATARC:

ATARC is an organization that facilitates collaboration between government, industry and academia in order to accelerate technology modernization initiatives. We provide ongoing opportunities for cross agency collaboration through onsite and digital interaction, learning, and market research. Through participation in in-person and virtual events, Working Group forums, and access to informational resources, ATARC offers its community a trusted environment for meaningful thought leadership exchange.